

A Good Name

1. Names hold meaning. Your last or surname tells others what family you belong to and who you represent. For example, if your name was Bill Gates, what might others assume about you?
2. Tell about someone with a really good or bad reputation.
3. The third command God gave to Moses was this, “Do not misuse the name of the Lord your God. The Lord will find guilty anyone who misuses his name.” —Exodus 20. How does someone misuse another’s name or reputation? How would someone misuse God’s name or reputation?
4. In the painting, we see a student and teacher at the piano. Why do you think the piano teacher cares that the student do well?
In what way would the student misuse or exalt the name of the teacher?
Draw what a good or bad reputation looks like to you.

A Good Name

1. Names hold meaning. Your last or surname tells others what family you belong to and who you represent. For example, if your name was Bill Gates, what might others assume about you?
2. Tell about someone with a really good or bad reputation.
3. The third command God gave to Moses was this, “Do not misuse the name of the Lord your God. The Lord will find guilty anyone who misuses his name.” —Exodus 20. How does someone misuse another’s name or reputation? How would someone misuse God’s name or reputation?
4. In the painting, we see a student and teacher at the piano. Why do you think the piano teacher cares that the student do well?
In what way would the student misuse or exalt the name of the teacher?
Draw what a good or bad reputation looks like to you.

Francis Hodgkins. The Piano Lesson, c. 1909. Watercolor and charcoal, 515 x 595 mm.
Auckland Art Gallery, Auckland, New Zealand

Francis Hodgkins. The Piano Lesson, c. 1909. Watercolor and charcoal, 515 x 595 mm.
Auckland Art Gallery, Auckland, New Zealand

Francis Hodgkins. The Piano Lesson, c. 1909. Watercolor and charcoal, 515 x 595 mm.
Auckland Art Gallery, Auckland, New Zealand

Francis Hodgkins. The Piano Lesson, c. 1909. Watercolor and charcoal, 515 x 595 mm.
Auckland Art Gallery, Auckland, New Zealand

A Good Name

1. Names hold meaning. Your last or surname tells others what family you belong to and who you represent. For example, if your name was Bill Gates, what might others assume about you?
2. Tell about someone with a really good or bad reputation.
3. The third command God gave to Moses was this, “Do not misuse the name of the Lord your God. The Lord will find guilty anyone who misuses his name.” —Exodus 20. How does someone misuse another’s name or reputation? How would someone misuse God’s name or reputation?
4. In the painting, we see a student and teacher at the piano. Why do you think the piano teacher cares that the student do well?
In what way would the student misuse or exalt the name of the teacher?
Draw what a good or bad reputation looks like to you.

A Good Name

1. Names hold meaning. Your last or surname tells others what family you belong to and who you represent. For example, if your name was Bill Gates, what might others assume about you?
2. Tell about someone with a really good or bad reputation.
3. The third command God gave to Moses was this, “Do not misuse the name of the Lord your God. The Lord will find guilty anyone who misuses his name.” —Exodus 20. How does someone misuse another’s name or reputation? How would someone misuse God’s name or reputation?
4. In the painting, we see a student and teacher at the piano. Why do you think the piano teacher cares that the student do well?
In what way would the student misuse or exalt the name of the teacher?
Draw what a good or bad reputation looks like to you.