

What Do We Adore?

1. People worship and adore many things. Sometimes people worship an object like a statue or painting. Others worship things like wealth, success, power, or popularity. Others are devoted to an unseen God. What are some of the things people in your culture are devoted to?
2. How does devotion to an object, ideal, or god affect a person's lifestyle?
3. What people worship and how they worship tends to bring out prejudice and intolerance from others who disagree. "Tolerance isn't about not having beliefs. It's about how your beliefs lead you to treat people who disagree with you."
—Timothy Keller.
Do you agree or disagree with this quote?
How can one disagree respectfully? Give an example.
4. The painting on the card gets its story from the Hebrew people who built a golden calf and worshiped the calf instead of the Lord, the Creator of heaven. It was the Lord that delivered the Hebrews from slavery in Egypt. Draw what comes to mind when you hear the word, "worship."
Explain your drawing to the others in your group.

Alexander Ivanov. Adoration of the Golden Calf, c. 1806-1858. Sketch and study, 1024 x 653 cm. Russian Federation

What Do We Adore?

1. People worship and adore many things. Sometimes people worship an object like a statue or painting. Others worship things like wealth, success, power, or popularity. Others are devoted to an unseen God. What are some of the things people in your culture are devoted to?
2. How does devotion to an object, ideal, or god affect a person's lifestyle?
3. What people worship and how they worship tends to bring out prejudice and intolerance from others who disagree. "Tolerance isn't about not having beliefs. It's about how your beliefs lead you to treat people who disagree with you."
—Timothy Keller.
Do you agree or disagree with this quote?
How can one disagree respectfully? Give an example.
4. The painting on the card gets its story from the Hebrew people who built a golden calf and worshiped the calf instead of the Lord, the Creator of heaven. It was the Lord that delivered the Hebrews from slavery in Egypt. Draw what comes to mind when you hear the word, "worship."
Explain your drawing to the others in your group.

Alexander Ivanov. Adoration of the Golden Calf, c. 1806-1858. Sketch and study, 1024 x 653 cm. Russian Federation

Alexander Ivanov. Adoration of the Golden Calf, c. 1806-1858. Sketch and study, 1024 x 653 cm. Russian Federation

Alexander Ivanov. Adoration of the Golden Calf, c. 1806-1858. Sketch and study, 1024 x 653 cm. Russian Federation

What Do We Adore?

1. People worship and adore many things. Sometimes people worship an object like a statue or painting. Others worship things like wealth, success, power, or popularity. Others are devoted to an unseen God. What are some of the things people in your culture are devoted to?
2. How does devotion to an object, ideal, or god affect a person's lifestyle?
3. What people worship and how they worship tends to bring out prejudice and intolerance from others who disagree. "Tolerance isn't about not having beliefs. It's about how your beliefs lead you to treat people who disagree with you."
—Timothy Keller.
Do you agree or disagree with this quote?
How can one disagree respectfully? Give an example.
4. The painting on the card gets its story from the Hebrew people who built a golden calf and worshiped the calf instead of the Lord, the Creator of heaven. It was the Lord that delivered the Hebrews from slavery in Egypt. Draw what comes to mind when you hear the word, "worship."
Explain your drawing to the others in your group.

What Do We Adore?

1. People worship and adore many things. Sometimes people worship an object like a statue or painting. Others worship things like wealth, success, power, or popularity. Others are devoted to an unseen God. What are some of the things people in your culture are devoted to?
2. How does devotion to an object, ideal, or god affect a person's lifestyle?
3. What people worship and how they worship tends to bring out prejudice and intolerance from others who disagree. "Tolerance isn't about not having beliefs. It's about how your beliefs lead you to treat people who disagree with you."
—Timothy Keller.
Do you agree or disagree with this quote?
How can one disagree respectfully? Give an example.
4. The painting on the card gets its story from the Hebrew people who built a golden calf and worshiped the calf instead of the Lord, the Creator of heaven. It was the Lord that delivered the Hebrews from slavery in Egypt. Draw what comes to mind when you hear the word, "worship."
Explain your drawing to the others in your group.