

Something to Share

1. To live well, people must have their essential needs met. What are some of your essential needs, things you can't live without?
Are there things in your life that you would like to have, but don't necessarily need?
2. Share about a time when you had a need that was met, perhaps in a way that was unexpected. How did you feel when that happened?
3. "It is the heart that does the giving; the fingers only let go." —Nigerian proverb. Restate this proverb in your own words. Talk about thoughts and ideas that hinder or encourage generosity.
4. In what ways do people show generosity? The painting, "Queuing for Bread," shows people in need, waiting for bread. Draw something that depicts generosity.

Something to Share

1. To live well, people must have their essential needs met. What are some of your essential needs, things you can't live without?
Are there things in your life that you would like to have, but don't necessarily need?
2. Share about a time when you had a need that was met, perhaps in a way that was unexpected. How did you feel when that happened?
3. "It is the heart that does the giving; the fingers only let go." —Nigerian proverb. Restate this proverb in your own words. Talk about thoughts and ideas that hinder or encourage generosity.
4. In what ways do people show generosity? The painting, "Queuing for Bread," shows people in need, waiting for bread. Draw something that depicts generosity.

Nicolae Tonitza. Queuing for Bread, 1920. Oil on canvas, 500 x 475 cm. Private Collection

Nicolae Tonitza. Queuing for Bread, 1920. Oil on canvas, 500 x 475 cm. Private Collection

Nicolae Tonitza. Queuing for Bread, 1920. Oil on canvas, 500 x 475 cm. Private Collection

Something to Share

1. To live well, people must have their essential needs met. What are some of your essential needs, things you can't live without?
Are there things in your life that you would like to have, but don't necessarily need?
2. Share about a time when you had a need that was met, perhaps in a way that was unexpected. How did you feel when that happened?
3. "It is the heart that does the giving; the fingers only let go." —Nigerian proverb. Restate this proverb in your own words. Talk about thoughts and ideas that hinder or encourage generosity.
4. In what ways do people show generosity? The painting, "Queuing for Bread," shows people in need, waiting for bread. Draw something that depicts generosity.

Nicolae Tonitza. Queuing for Bread, 1920. Oil on canvas, 500 x 475 cm. Private Collection

Something to Share

1. To live well, people must have their essential needs met. What are some of your essential needs, things you can't live without?
Are there things in your life that you would like to have, but don't necessarily need?
2. Share about a time when you had a need that was met, perhaps in a way that was unexpected. How did you feel when that happened?
3. "It is the heart that does the giving; the fingers only let go." —Nigerian proverb. Restate this proverb in your own words. Talk about thoughts and ideas that hinder or encourage generosity.
4. In what ways do people show generosity? The painting, "Queuing for Bread," shows people in need, waiting for bread. Draw something that depicts generosity.